

Statement on the Loan Charge from Kevin Hollinrake MP

Given clear concerns about the retrospective effect of the Loan Charge and the independence of the review, I do believe that this is a relevant matter for the Treasury Select Committee. Whilst being a strong advocate for a fair and level playing field and for doing more to tackle aggressive tax avoidance and disguised remuneration, any such action must be fair and proportionate.