The impact of settlement on you financially

- My daughter will now go through Uni with the bills totally on her as she does her medicine degree - I had intended to cover it all.
- I cannot afford to be out of work to ensure that the LC is paid but work is hard to find with my skills now - added pressure.
- Settlement and time to pay is STILL being worked.

The personal impact (financially and in other ways) if HMRC enforce the Loan Charge as laid down in the legislation

After many years of persecution and uncertainty courtesy of HMRC's inept and bullying nature, I have become very depressed, highly anxious and a shell of my former self. This has led to severe marital tensions which is now resulting in a 25 yr marriage end! I find it reprehensible that only the end users have been hauled across the coals, whilst professionals and scheme promoters have their fees without any recourse.
HMRC and the Treasury are public offices without any moral compass which when I am better I will pursue - right now it's about getting past the darkness every day. I used to love my family and country, now it's just my family.
